

|             | Presentation                                                                                                                                                                                      | Speakers                                        |
|-------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| 10:30-10:35 | Opening Remarks and Welcome AddressThe Historical Significance of Introducing the Close Collaboration with Parents (CC) Training Program at Our Hospital and Our Vision for the Future | Tomohiko Nakamura,Honorary Director         |
| 10:35-10:50 | Mentor Activity ReportImplementing the CC Training Program in Nagano: Experiences and Future Perspectives                                                                              | Ryo Itoshima                                    |
| 10:50-11:05 | A Family's Perspective: Walking the Journey TogetherThe Importance of Parents' Involvement in Their Child's Care                                                                       | Soda family, parent of preterm baby             |
| 11:05-11:20 | Special LectureReflections on the Implementation of the Close Collaboration with Parents Program in Japan (Nagano) and a Message of Encouragement                                      | Sari Ahlqvist-Björkroth                         |
| 11:20-11:35 | Mentee ReportWhat I felt after coming back from my parental leave: from my experiences as a nurse and as a parent of a preterm baby                                                    | Eri Oki, RN                                     |
| 11:35-11:50 | Local Mentor Report: MDExperiences and Feedback from the CC Training Program in Tokyo                                                                                                  | Ayako Izumi, MDLocal mentor in Tokyo        |
| 11:50-12:05 | Local Mentor Report: RNExperiences and Feedback from the CC Training Program in Tokyo                                                                                                  | Keiko Suzuki, RNLocal mentor in Tokyo       |
| 12:05-12:15 | Administrative Support for Program ImplementationBuilding Organizational Support Systems to Sustain Change                                                                             | Hiroyuki Nakajima,Administrative Department |
| 12:15-12:20 | Closing Remarks and Group Photo SessionA Message of Congratulations and Encouragement to the Program Graduates                                                                         | Yuji Inaba, Hospital Director                   |